3. The UK Group pays the correct amount of tax required of it under the laws and regulations of the countries in which it operates.

Tax advice may be sought from external advisors in respect of material transactions and regular tax compliance, and when Group Tax does not have the expertise required in a particular area.

The terms of any such engagement must be aligned with the UK Group's corporate governance and risk management policies, including Subsea 7's Ethics Policy, Code of Conduct and this Tax Strategy.

Annual Review of the Tax Strategy

The global tax environment is rapidly evolving, and therefore the Tax Strategy will be subject to regular review, and developed if necessary.

UK Group Tax Policy

1. Compliance with laws, rules and regulations.

The UK Group is committed to complying with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and reporting and disclosure requirements, wherever there is a requirement to do so as a result of our business presence and transactions, in line with our Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct.

The UK Group believes that it should pay the amounts of tax legally due in any territory, and at the time at which it is legally due. The UK Group will use its best judgement in determining whether it is appropriate to use available reliefs and incentives, as provided by the relevant tax code.

The UK Group aims to file all relevant tax returns in all countries in accordance with prudent and established tax return filing positions. It will form strong tax technical positions and it will fully understand the business, commercial and regulatory context of transactions before filing the results of such transactions.

Where tax law is unclear or subject to interpretation, professional advice or advance clearance from tax authorities may be sought to minimize the risk that the UK Group's position leads to dispute.

Where tax enquiries or audits are opened, the UK Group will adopt a proactive approach to the provision of information to the relevant tax authorities in order to reach prompt resolution of any matters under review.

2. Consistency with UK Group strategy

Tax decisions will always be made in a manner which is consistent with and complements the UK Group's overall business and commercial strategy.

Key business decision makers should be made aware of the tax consequences of such decisions on a timely basis, with the aim of optimising the after-tax returns for the UK Group's shareholders. Group Tax will partner with the businesses to ensure there is that consistency.

3. Governance, Assurance and Tax Risk Management

Responsibility and accountability for the UK Group's tax affairs is clearly defined within the UK Group, and decisions will be taken at an appropriate level.

The Subsea 7 International Holdings (UK) Limited Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for approving this Tax Strategy.

The Chief Financial Officer and the Head of Tax are responsible for implementing the Tax Strategy and for ensuring that it is adhered to.

Diligent professional care and judgement will be employed to assess tax risks in order to arrive at well-reasoned conclusions on how the risks should be managed. In reviewing the risks of a tax action or decision the following will be considered:

- the legal and fiduciary duties of directors and employees,

- the requirements of our Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct¹,
- the maintenance of the UK Group's corporate reputation, having particular regard to the principles embodied in its Code of Conduct regarding the way in which it interacts with the communities around us,
- the tax benefits and impact on the UK Group's reported results comparative to the potential financial costs involved, including the risk of penalties and interest, and
- the wider consequences of potential disagreement with tax authorities, and any possible impact on relationships with them.

4. Attitudes to tax planning

Any tax planning which the UK Group undertakes will have commercial and economic substance.

Where alternative choices exist to achieve the same commercial result the most tax efficient approach in compliance with all relevant laws is likely to be considered.

However, the UK Group will always strive to fulfill its primary objective of paying the correct amount of tax at the right time from a legal perspective, and maintaining its solid reputation with HMRC and other tax authorities.

Consideration is also given to the UK Group's reputation, brand, and corporate and social responsibility when considering business developments, and associated tax consequences.

5. Relationships with tax authorities

The UK Group is committed to the principles of openness and transparency in its approach to dealing with tax authorities wherever it operates around the world.
